PUD Project Narrative

The proposed use for the Frampton Farms Property will be an exciting addition to the Urbandale community. It is estimated that hundreds of new jobs will be created support the entertainment venue options that include a conference center, a hotel, a casino, an upscale bowling center and multiple dining alternatives.

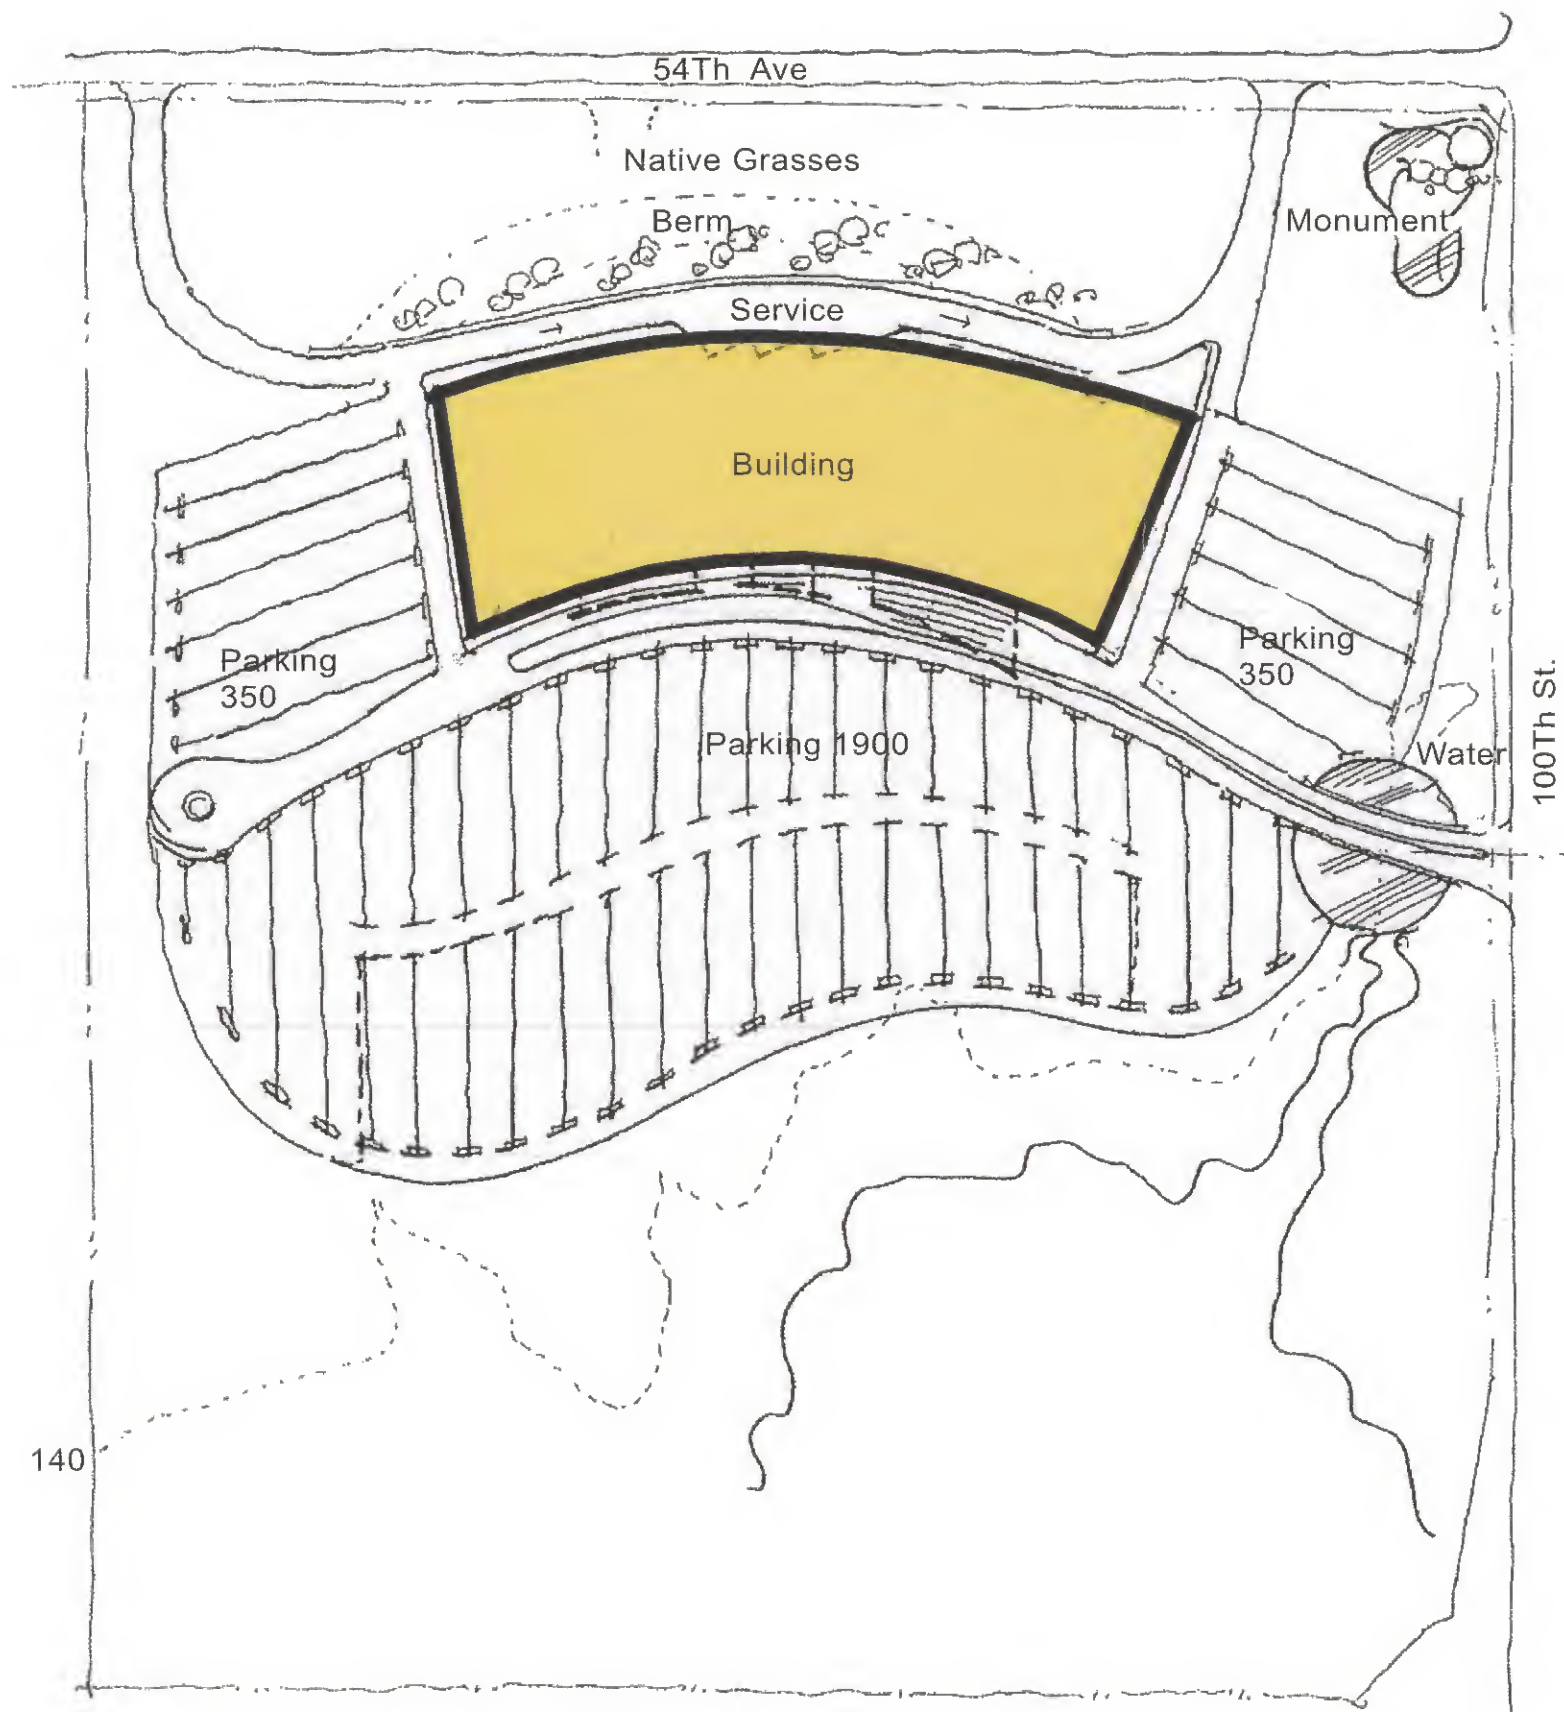

The intent is to work in concert with planned improvements for the area as site improvements are implemented. Options for structured parking will be considered in addition to surface parking. Independent service areas and public access to the facility will be provided to maintain positive traffic flow on and off the site.

Sustainable strategies for site development and building design will be explored throughout the design process.

Fair Grounds, LLC is a newly formed entity which is owned by Gary Kirke and Mike Richards. Gary Kirke and Mike Richards are current residents of West Des Moines, Iowa and are owners of other Iowa businesses including Wild Rose Entertainment and Quatro Composites.
